OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD:

Devon Rachae

OCC International Spokesperson

Discover how God is using Operation Christmas Child shoebox gifts around the world to change lives!

Devon is from the island of Grenada and received an Operation Christmas Child shoebox gift at age 12. This gift played an essential role in his salvation experience which eventually led to involvement within his local church and community. He later went on to serve as a Senator in Grenada's parliament and now serves as senior pastor of two churches. With OCC, he has served on the National Leadership Team in Grenada and as International Field Representative within his region. He currently serves as Regional Coordinator for the Caribbean, Pacific, and Islands.

During Independence Day, July 4, we celebrate our freedom as a nation. The founding fathers sacrificed dearly so that the United States could be free from the tyranny of England.

As Christians, we can also celebrate freedom. If we have trusted Jesus Christ as Savior, we are free from the penalty of sin (Rom. 6:23). As we continue in God's Word (Jn. 8:31-32) and trust Him to work in us, we are free from the power of sin. We are not bound to give into temptation (1 Cor. 10:13). One of these days, when Jesus returns and we see Him, we will be free from the presence of sin (1 Jn. 3:2). We are also free to love, to serve, to give, to worship. We as Christians have been blessed indeed and have much to celebrate.
