

The Blessed Man

In an age of disinformation and distractions, living for God and leading our families can be a significant challenge. The bad news is that we are receiving constant input from the world, and much of it is totally wrong. In Ps. 1:1 we are told not to walk in the counsel of the ungodly, to stand in the way of sinners, or to sit in the seat of the scornful. Ungodly advice, ungodly associations, and ungodly attitudes are prevalent. But we can choose to live and lead differently.

According to Ps. 1:2 the blessed man, the happy man, delights in the law of the Lord and meditates in it day and night. The focus is on the Word instead of the world. And the results are excellent according to Ps. 1:3, things like stability, fruitfulness, endurance, and prosperity.

We have a choice to live and lead according to the dictates of the world or according to the principles of scripture. We cannot choose the consequences.
